STONES

Sometimes you just want something different...something you'd describe as "just the thing" to pull a room or patio together for a deeply personal, soothing primal experience. Mood altering, sophisticated and modern, with trendy quiet or bold colors, and a dignified presence that makes a very big impression, are elements you'll find in EAF's Stone Collection. There are dozens of choices and much versatility of usage. They are intriguing in-fire lightweight functioning objects in multiple sizes that can stand alone or conjoin with other in-fire objects and materials, transitioning from a very traditional to a new romantic placid point of view that brings the fireplace into the room.
